PRESS RELEASE #123

RING IN THE NEW YEAR 2008 BARBADOS-STYLE WITH ROARING TWENTIES PARTY AT MANGO BAY

BARBADOS (Nov. 26, 2007) – Remember to bring a flapper dress and fedora, and don't forget the feathers, as Mango Bay in Barbados welcomes the New Year 2008 with a Roaring Twenties party for all guests staying at the hotel on Dec. 31, 2007.

Creating a memorable vacation experience for all, Mango Bay's themed New Year's celebration will feature a buffet dinner, live music from the local band Nexcyx, props such as men's Twenties-style hats and feathers and boas for the women, as well as other party amenities. While you don't have to dress up in Roaring Twenties costumes, you can still enjoy the New Year's Eve celebration as part of your escape to Mango Bay in Barbados at no extra cost. All-inclusive rates from Dec. 15, 2007 through Jan. 3, 2008 start at $535 per night in a standard room and are based on double occupancy.

Mango Bay's all-inclusive rates feature accommodations; food and beverage; nightly entertainment; watersports such as waterskiing, Hobie Cat sailing, kayaking and snorkeling; a shopping excursion to the capital city of Bridgetown, where items from unique local handicrafts to luxury goods are in abundance and available at duty-free prices; a glass-bottom boat ride; and a fun-filled catamaran sail for a day at sea.
